

For teachers, pre-service teachers, and
after school educators
in New York City

New York City Outdoors!

An Environmental Education Expo

Tuesday, September 23rd, 2008

4:30–7:00 pm

Pier 66 Maritime (the Barge at the Frying Pan), Hudson River Park at 26th Street

For more information, call
212.431.9676 x391 or email
jaime@nycswcd.net

Learn about field trips and in-class programs!

- * Composting
- * Observing live marine life or forest animals
- * Overnight camping in a city park
- * Hiking in forests
- * Fishing and seining
- * Growing oysters or trout
- * Gardening with hydroponics
- * Harvesting solar energy
- * Using our parks as outdoor classrooms

Cool demonstrations!

- * Gardening oysters
- * Fishing off the pier
- * Live raptors, birds, reptiles
- * Testing the Hudson River water

FREE refreshments!

Savor the fantastic view of the Hudson River, too.

Networking and socializing!

Find like-minded peers and share stories and ideas.

Fabulous Door Prizes!

This program is a joint venture of The River Project, New York City Soil & Water Conservation District, The NYU Wallerstein Collaborative for Urban Environmental Education, and Hudson Basin River Watch.

NYUSteinhardt

Steinhardt School of Culture, Education, and Human Development

Wallerstein Collaborative for Urban Environmental Education

34 Stuyvesant Street, New York, NY 10003

THE RIVER PROJECT

NEW YORK CITY
SOIL & WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT

Hudson Basin River Watch

New York City
Outdoors!
Tuesday, September 23